MONEY EASIER. The signs of relaxation in the money market obrved on Friday were not deceitful so far as to-day went, but some allowance is of course to be made for the customary easier working of the market on Saturday afternoons. The highest rate on call was per cent and interest to Monday, which, after l, was, as compared with the previous rates, only 1-16 and interest. The market early in the after noon had fallen off to 1-32 and interest to Monday. or at the rate, say, of 12% per cent per annum for the two days, and before three o'clock loans had been made quite freely at plain 7 per cent. Comexchange was steady if not firm on the basis of 00% a 100% for prime bankers' sixty-day sterling

GOLD FIRM-111% A 111%. The gold market was firmer in face of the begin-ning of the prepayment without rebate of the January coin interest on the public debt, a generous amount of which came on the market during the course of the day. Something of the stronger tone was due to the buying of gold for remittance of balances to Europe, but more of it was due to a closing of the short interest. THE FOREIGN MARKET-ERIE IN LONDON. The London quotations show an improvement of about a quarter per cent in consois-a considerable change in them for one day in a time of peace—and a slightly lower range of prices for our bonds. Erie shares have again advanced and at the close of street business at half-past two (London adjourning early on Saturday afternoons) the price was 51, as against 4914 the previous evening. The quotation 51, with sight exchange at 110% and gold at 111%, is just 62%.

STOCKS DULL AND FIRM.

The stock market was remarkably quiet after the sudden ebuilition in Eric, the dealings in which also assumed a more moderate character. The first sale was at 61, whence there was a jump to 61% without an intermediate transaction, and next a reaction to 60%, the price standing between 60% and 60% during a good portion of the day or until after the bank statement, when it declined to 59 % and closed at 59%, or three per cent below the last quotation from London,
A DISCREPANCY
which was not and is not readily explained. Were the difference in favor of the New York market it would mean probably that the foreign bankers were afraid of a "corner" during the fifteen days requisite to get the stock over the Atlantic, as happened when Daniel Drew controlled the stock a few months since. It is curious how the Erie question has widened a knowledge of foreign ex-change calculations. This mysterious part of the arithmetic has been brought into general use within the past few days, and the "cyphering" done every day on THE LONDON QUOTATION of Erie promises to turn out a big crop of profi-cients in the business of Exchange place. A new spasm in Pacific Mail lifted that stock to 79%, but the advance brought out sellers, and the price receded to 77%. Union Pacific advanced to 38% on purchases by a pool who are going to sue the Crédit Mobilier for eighteen millions of money, alleged to have been wrongfully taken from the company in the construction of the road. St. Paul advanced to 55%, St. Jo preferred to 70 and Wabash to 72%, about the HIGHEST PRICES OF THE SEASON. Western Union recovered to 81½ and New York Central to 97¼. Lake Shore was exceptionally heavy, while the Northwestern stocks were neglected. The lowest prices were made right after the publication of the bank statement, but the depression soon passed away, and the market advanced again and closed strong, especially when it was remembered that the disbursement of the January interest, which began to-day, would lead New Jersey Central Railroad Company have been temporarily enjoined from refusing the use of their broad gauge track to the Lackawanna road. Harlem sold at 113, ex-dividend.

The Southern State bonds were firmer for Virginia consols and Missouri sixes, but otherwise dull and steady.

BANKING OFFICE OF FISK & HATCH, NEW YORK, Dec. 23, 1872.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad is about completed. Its immediate promise of business is very large; its earnings on the disconnected portions will reach this year nearly $1,000,000, without mineral or through business, from which its revenues as a completed road will be largely derived. Coal mining, iron furnaces, rolling mills and manufactories of all kinds will soon crowd its whole line; while the producing West and manufacturing East are eagerly awaiting the opening of this new Trunk Line, which is destined to have so important an influence upon the transportation of their products

The Pirst Mortgage Six Per Cent Gold Bends of the Company, the total amount of which is only $15,000.000, secured upon a property worth $35,000,000 to $40,000,000, are fully equal in intrinsic value to the Central Pacific Bonds. They are issued in denominations of $100, $500 and $1,000, and at their present market price, 86 and accrued interest, are very desirable.

The Central Pacific Six Per Cent Bonds are too well known to require description or commendation. Their total amount is $25,885,000; they have for a long time ranged in market price near or above par, the price to-day being 102 to 102%, with coupon on, due January 1, of 3 per cent, gold.

The Western Pacific Six Per Cent Gold Bonds amount to $2,735,000. This road is now consolidated with the Centrai Pacific, and the payment of its bonds, principal and interest, is assumed by the latter. Their market price to-day is 92 to 92%, also with a three per cent gold coupon on, due January 1. As they have recently been introduced on the Stock Exchange we expect to see them rapidly rise to the price of Central Pacifics, being substantially the same in character and value.

The Chesapeake and Ohio, the Cantral and Western Pacific bonds, all of which have been negotiated by us, we believe to be among the best and most desirable investment securities in the market, which in time must become very scarce, especially as the government will probably, during the coming year, pay off, in gold, another large lot of five-twenties and issue in their place. five per cent bonds.

We buy and sell, as usual, Government Bonds, receive deposits, on which we allow interest, make collections and conduct a general banking business in all its FISK & HATCH. branches.

JAY GOULD AND ERIE.

The Final Settlement by Jay Gould of the Claims of the Eric Railroad. The late Erie sensation is still the topic of co versation on the street, and it is generally conceded that Jay Gould has, in this instance, made a coup by far surpassing any of the financial successes which have made his name famous in Wall street. He is said to hold some two hundred and him on the average about 50 to 52. The stock has remained pretty steady throughout the day, much to the disappointment of the bulls, who talked about it going to 65.

Mr. Jay Gould is very reticent as to the particulars of this recent triumph, and simply states that he has returned some property to the Eric Railroad Company which he has been anxious for some time to get rid of, but he could not get the President of the road to take it off his hands. He also states that he thinks the Eric Railroad affairs are in a prosperous condition and that the company has every chance of doing a large and lucrative business. The third rail for a narrow gauge will probably be commenced on soon, so that freight and passenger cars from the West can be run right through and save the transfer of goods from car to winding up the transfer of the securities from Mr. Gould. The deed transferring the Grand Opera House was signed to-day, and, judging from the reading of the commencement of the deed, it has been conveyed to President Peter H. Watsop. The deed is dated December 18, 1872, and commences as

Jay Gould, of city and county and State of New York and Helen D., his wife, and Lucy D. Fisk, also of the city and county and State of New York, parties of the first part, and Peter B. Watson, of the same place, party of the second part, witnesseth: that the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of $1.20,000 surrenders, &c., &c.

Mr. Barlow says that everything is now arranged satisfactorily, and that the Eric Railroad Company have no further claims against Mr. Jay Gould.

There was a meeting in the atternoon in Mr. Barlow's office of a number of gentlemen connected with the Eric Railroad Company, and considerable business was transacted of an important nature. The Eric Railway Company makes the following return of their estimated weekly carnings, commencing November 1, 1872:mencing November 1, 1872:— 1871. 1872.
For week ending December 15. $328,030 $378,333
Previously reported. 1,810,502 2,072,142

The above report shows that the road is in a flour-ishing condition and the returns are largely on the increase since the advent of the present manage-increase since the advent of the present management.

The rumored coalition between Horace F. Clarke and Jay Gould is discussed with considerable interest on the street, and all kinds of stories relating thereto have been industriously set adoat. Some gentlemen are so far impressed with the strategy and generalship of Jay Gould that they prophesy that before two years have elapsed he will have the management of the Eric Kailroad, which, connected with the Union Pacific and several prominent Western roads, will become one of the most valuable railroad properties in the conactry.

SING SING PRISON MATTERS.

How Escapes are Planned and Carried Out-The "Bogus Telegram" Trick Eclipsed by a Basket of Fruit-A Mar-ried Pair of Notorious Felons Again at

If anything could eclipse the systematized daring which marked the exodus of John Rielly and Robert E. Ropgoed, allas Lyons, from Sing Sing Prison, about two weeks ago, when, on the strength of a bogus telegram, they sent the Warden and masters of the situation, it is the audacity evinced by Sophia Lyons, wife of the last-named convict, who escaped from the female prison on Thursday evening. As in the case of her husband, the man-who escaped from the female prison on Thursday evening. As in the case of her husband, the manner of getting away had been well planned, and all possibilities of frustration duly considered and provided for.

The woman Lyons, together with another female convict, was employed in the culinary department of the prison, and in that capacity was not accustomed to be locked up so early in the evening as the other inmates. Shortly after nightfall on the day named a vehicle drove to the prison, and the driver alighting, knocked loudly at the door. The summons was answered by Mrs. Lyons, who, taking a basket of iruit from the visitor, handed it to her companion, saying that it contained delicacies for the hospital, and requested her to take it up stairs forthwith. The other woman, not suspecting anything wrong, left to deliver the package, and in an instant afterwards another female convict, who happened to be near the door, saw the stranger throw a cloak over the shoulders of Mrs. Lyons and lift her bodily into the carriage, which then drove rapidly from the scene. It is said that an alarm was immediately given, but all efforts to overtake the fugitives were unavailing.

Sophia Lyons had served about one year of her second term in the prison for grand larceny. She belongs to a family which appears to be steeped in crime, herself and husband being at this moment escaped feions, while her mother is still undergoing sentence in the prison, her son explating his crimes in a similar institution in Connecticut and a daughter at present enjoying the hospitalities of Blackwell's Island.

HAS A FORGERY BEEN COMMITTED? A case of some interest to Morris and Essex county people came up yesterday in the Essex county Supreme Court at Newark, before Judges Depue and Guild. It was an argument on a mo tion to show cause why certain judgments against Isaac M. Cockefair, deceased, involving some $3,000 Isaac M. Cockefair, deceased, involving some $3,000, should not be opened on the ground of forgery. The judgments were granted in the Morris County Court on notes—four in number—signed by Charles Cockefair and endorsed by Isaac his father. After the judgments had been obtained writs were placed in the hands of Colonel Peckwell, who was then Sheriff of Essex county, where Isaac Cockefair resided, and levies were made on his property. In November last he died, and his wife now claims that his endorsement on the notes was a lorgery, and seeks to have the judgment opened and set aside on that ground. The Court heard elaborate argument on the issue by a quartet of legal talent, took the papers and reserved decision. MORTALITY IN BOSTON.
